

Mohammed was subject to some of the harshest interrogation tactics used by US officials. He was reportedly waterboarded 183 times.

He claimed responsibility for the 1993 World Trade Center bombing, the decapitation of Wall Street Journal reporter Daniel Pearl, Richard Reid's failed shoe bomber operation, the nightclub bombing in Bali, Indonesia, planning for a second-wave of attacks on the US...an assassination plot against former President Carter and former President Clinton [and seven other major acts of international terrorism.]
