

Yukihisa Fujita, a member of the Upper House of the Japanese Parliament has recently published a book titled: "Questioning 9/11 in Japan's Parliament - Can Obama Change the USA?"

During the second part of the event formal greetings to Mr. Fujita were presented by the following speakers:

Tadashi Inuzuka, Member of Parliament, member of the Committee on Foreign Affairs and Defence

Hideaki Seo, director of Sundai School , chair of the Fujita Politics Forum

Yukiyo Hatoyama, general secretary of the Democratic Party of Japan

Kazuo Tanigawa, former self defense minister and Justice minister for the ruling party in Japan, the Liberal Democratic Party

Yasushi Kurokouchi, former ambassador to Switzerland, Nigeria and Tanzania

Haruhiko Shiratori, father of a 9/11 victim.

Yasuo Onuki, former chief of the NHK office in Europe and the US. NHK, Japan Broadcasting Corporation, is Japan's national public broadcasting organization.

Hiroshi Yamada, former chief editor of the US and Europe office of Japan's daily newspaper "Yomiuri"

Kyoji Takei, representative of a major Japanese printing labor union.

All speakers fully supported Mr. Fujita's efforts emphasizing the importance of the 9/11 questions in the context of the need of peace and reconciliation in Afghanistan and the protection of Japan non-military constitution.

More...