

Jack Abramoff sentenced to 48 months

Thursday, 04 September 2008 18:11 -

Jack A. Abramoff, the once-powerful Republican super-lobbyist, was sentenced today to 48 months in prison for his role in a corruption scandal that rocked Congress and the Bush administration.

The sentence was far below the 121 months that Abramoff could have received under federal sentencing guidelines but more than either the Justice Department or his lawyers had requested.

More...

TVNL Comment: Watch for the Presidential Pardon. Crime Pays!