

Wasilla Police Billed Sexual Assault Victims for Their Own Rape Kits

Monday, 08 September 2008 23:08 -

While Sarah Palin was serving as the Mayor of Wasilla, Alaska, the city charged victims of sexual assault between $300 and $1200 for their own rape kits.

Please note that the Governor who signed the new law preventing sexual assault victims from paying for their own rape kits was a Democrat, Tony Knowles.

TVNL Comment: America, the greatest nation in the world. What a sad joke.
