

An unidentified object has been shot down over Lake Huron according to Senator Jack Bergman.

As confirmed on the official Twitter profile of Senator Jack Bergman from Michigan, another unidentified object has been shot down this afternoon, Sunday, February 12, this time over Lake Huron.

He tweeted: "I've been in contact with DOD regarding operations across the Great Lakes region today. The US military has decommissioned another "object" over Lake Huron. I appreciate the decisive action by our fighter pilots. The American people deserve far more answers than we have".
