

Keep prayer and God in school, where they belong!

So, if America isn't a Christian nation, what is She? In my humble opinion, she is exactly what was proffered in Henry's article, in my own words: the United States of America is little more than the "host" for the infectious disease of the New World Order...Freemasonry simply keeps the fever up.

Ask yourself, what is being used by the Masonic Orders to keep the deception alive? Easy, Constitutionalist, "Tea Party", "Truthers", "Birthers" and the like. What's wrong with all these? They simply are a distraction to make everyone feel like they make a difference. Any psychology student can tell you that feeling will win out over facts any day of the week until it's too late...psychologists call this cognitive dissonance. Case in point, all the hoopla over the Constitution, Bill of Rights and all other measures for "freedom" were undone by treaties such as the Treaty of Tripoli when the treaty became the benefit of the State with no consideration given for original intent.
