

Bush told the world that he wanted to see Peace in the Middle-East before he left office; and now we see exactly what he meant by this bit of Newspeak that is his version of Orwell's "War is Peace."

The fact that Obama will only intensify these kinds of crimes as are being committed by Israel as this is written - does not bode well for either Peace or for stability in coming years.

More...