

Judge says gov't must produce waterboarding memos

Thursday, 04 September 2008 00:46 -

A federal judge has ruled in New York that the government must either produce memos on waterboarding and other harsh interrogation methods used by the CIA or explain why they should be kept secret.

More...