Former Israeli President Moshe Katsav has been formally charged with rape and other sexual offences.

The charges relate to accusations by a number of female employees who worked for Mr Katsav while he was tourism minister and president.

More...