

Vice President Cheney is daring the Obama administration to indict him for authorizing torture, according to a former White House lawyer, and it's time to call him out on his bluff.

Even more, they seem to be an in-your-face dare by Mr. Cheney to the U.S. criminal justice system: "I am Dick Cheney, I approved violations of the law in the name of the war on terror, and what are you going to do about it?"

More...