

"... We worked with the world, we worked to make sure that Saddam Hussein heard the message of the world. And when he chose to deny inspectors, when he chose not to disclose, then I had the difficult decision to make to remove him. And we did, and the world is safer for it."
—President George W. Bush

TVNL Comment: The real question should be is why does the media allow Bush to lie without pointing it out to the public?

More...